

Job Description: QC Technician

Company: Blu Dot Systems Inc.

Location: Lethbridge One Solar Farm, Lethbridge, Alberta

Position: QC Technician

About Blu Dot Systems Inc.:

Blu Dot Systems Inc. is a full-service provider specializing in the design and construction of utility-scale solar generation facilities. Blu Dot is committed to safety, expertise, and full-service project execution, offering services from conception to completion, including material management, construction, commissioning, and operations.

Responsibilities:

- Assist the QC Lead in performing quality control duties for the Lethbridge One solar farm project.
- Conduct inspections and tests to ensure compliance with project specifications and standards.
- Document and report any deviations or issues found during inspections.
- Collaborate with project teams to implement corrective actions.
- Maintain accurate records of QC activities and results.
- Support continuous improvement initiatives for quality processes and procedures.

Qualifications:

- Completion or enrollment in a technical education program
- Strong attention to detail and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent communication and documentation abilities.
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team environment.
- Proficient in MS Word and Excel

Please submit resumes to info@bludotsystems.com